ADMITTED TO THE BAR: MINNESOTA

WORK EXPERIENCE:

DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION AND RESEARCH, ZERO ABUSE PROJECT,
August 2018 – Present.

The Zero Abuse Project (ZAP) works to engage legal and non-legal professionals, students, and community members to effectively prevent, recognize, and respond to child abuse nationwide. Together with its community partners, ZAP provides trainings in child-protection, trauma-informed practices, and related areas to legal professionals, courtroom and community stakeholders, and future child-protection professionals.

SENIOR DIRECTOR & FOUNDER, GUNDERSEN NATIONAL CHILD PROTECTION TRAINING CENTER, November 2013 - August 2018

Based at Winona State University, NCPTC originally began as a program of the National District Attorneys Association. NCPTC merged into Gundersen Health System in 2013.

The Center assists in:

- developing undergraduate and graduate training programs for future mandated reporters and child protection professionals;
- developing and overseeing state and international forensic interview training programs
- provides training, technical assistance and publications to front line child protection professionals nationally and internationally;
- works to integrated Adverse Childhood Experience (ACE) research into medical and mental health care.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, NATIONAL CHILD PROTECTION TRAINING CENTER
(NCPTC), August 2003-2013.

DIRECTOR, National District Attorneys Association's CHILD ABUSE PROGRAMS, 2004 to 2007.

DIRECTOR, APRI'S NATIONAL CENTER FOR PROSECUTION OF CHILD ABUSE, September 1999-2004

SENIOR ATTORNEY, AMERICAN PROSECUTORS RESEARCH INSTITUTE'S NATIONAL CENTER FOR PROSECUTION OF CHILD ABUSE, Alexandria, Virginia. April 1997-September 1999. Duties include training and providing technical assistance to prosecutors handling cases of child abuse.

ASSISTANT COUNTY ATTORNEY, RURAL MINNESOTA, 1988-1997. Duties included felony, gross misdemeanor and misdemeanor prosecutions as well as juvenile delinquency, child protection, civil commitment, and child support cases.
